Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I know I didn't need your permission to write against the La Fontaines, though I was asking for it. I would like to of had you help me on the book but as it seems now, you will not.

I feel that I can go against Oswald Talked, with the information Jim Leavelle can give and some of the files I have I think I can do it. I will not now send you nothing that has to do with "Oswald Talked". I am now working on a Part two of my first book, if you like to I will send some rough draft. I want the information I have to be right in both of my new books. I am not like Groden, Livingstone, or Posner!

I just recived "Oswald Talked" and "Oswald in New Orleans." I did not read Oswald Talked yet. I did plane to read your book first then Oswald Talked. I am

Not reading Oswald Talley till February. We visit Leanne in March.

We take it you are now not going to help, That is fine, We think you would be a very big help, We will not ask no more, nor no more questions.

Sincerely,
Carl Lehmann
